Provisions that may apply to insurance and reinsurance companies governed by the law of another Member State of the European Economic Area (EEA) operating in Belgium under the freedom to provide services

Listed below is a series of legal and regulatory provisions with a bearing on economic and financial matters which constitute provisions protecting the general good within the meaning of Articles 564, §1 and 576 of the Law of 13 March 2016 on the legal status and supervision of insurance or reinsurance companies and Article 15 of the Law of 4 April 2014 on insurance, and may therefore be relevant to the activities of insurance or reinsurance companies governed by the law of another Member State of the European Economic Area (EEA) operating in Belgium under the freedom to provide services. This list is not exhaustive and does not in any way detract from the obligation, when carrying on activities in Belgium, to comply with the provisions of Belgian law that are not mentioned below (e.g. provisions under civil law, commercial law, criminal law, tax law or the privacy legislation). The Belgian legislation can be consulted on <http://www.ejustice.just.fgov.be/law/law.htm>. The National Bank of Belgium (NBB) and the Financial Services and Markets Authority (FSMA) cannot be held liable for any inaccuracies in or incompleteness of this list or for the use thereof. This list does not confer any rights.
